Location

The three properties are located along College Street and Ann's Place in the centre of St Peter Port. They therefore occupy a prominent position in the heart of Guernsey's financial district.

The surrounding vicinity is dominated by some renowned buildings such as Elizabeth College, St James Concert Hall and The OGH, Guernsey's only 5* hotel.

The vicinity has a large number of well-established and diverse companies within the finance and legal sectors.

These include:

Estate House,
Paragon House
& 3 College Street

Further Information

Description

The properties for sale comprises three commercial buildings, known as Estate House, Paragon House & 3 Collage Street, as follows:

Estate House comprises three stories, all let to Swoffers. The ground floor comprises a well-specified reception area and covered parking for five cars, with the first and second floors comprising offices and boardrooms. The staff room is also located on the second floor, together with additional storage.

The ground floor benefits from large bay windows currently being used for displays making it ideal for use by the current occupier.

Paragon House is situated directly to the east of Estate House and benefits from the same uPVC sash windows on the first floor with two captain style dormer windows on the second floor. It includes two offices. One is occupied by Swoffers, who have knocked through to Estate House to create an open plan office. The other is occupied by AGI Services Limited. The property also offers two well-maintained flats which are situated on the second floor, both of which are let. In addition, there are seven secure parking spaces located in the car park on the ground floor.

3 College Street is situated two properties up from Estate House and benefits from a sizeable communal courtyard which is accessed through an archway, separating it from the main road. The courtyard provides direct access into the Paragon House Car Park, with the property comprising three independent offices, two on the ground floor and one on the second.

3 College Street also includes three flats, two of them are included in the sale. The third flat is owned by an independent party.
