LOCATION

2 Contree Mansell is located in the Old Quarter of St Peter Port, at the top of Mill Street, next to Trinity Square and is a short walk from St Peter Port's town centre.

The Old Quarter attracts a good level of footfall and in the immediate vicinity are a variety of occupiers. This includes convenience stores, beauticians, wine bars, restaurants, a beautician, numerous retail outlets and a popular coffee shop next door.

It is also conveniently located near to the popular residential locations such as Victoria Road and La Charroterie.

There is short term public car parking available directly outside the property.

DESCRIPTION

The available property is on the ground floor of 2 Contree Mansell.

Although currently classified as a retail unit, it was originally a bar but has since been used as an antique store and is currently an art gallery.

Subject to the relevant consents being obtained, alternative uses may also be possible.

The property is accessed directly from Contree Mansell and offers newly refurbished retail accommodation. This includes new lighting, flooring, decoration, window blinds and door ironmongery. Fibre Optic Broadband is available and, if required, there is also an alarm system and CCTV system.

At the rear of the property is a store room which has a large skylight with ventilation, kitchenette and a WC.

The property is therefore in a move-in condition for any incoming purchaser.

It has large window displays which provide the occupier an opportunity to display goods and/or corporate branding.

ACCOMMODATION

The property provides approximately 600 sq ft of accommodation.

This comprises 400 sq ft of retail plus 200 sq ft of ancillary accommodation (storage, kitchenette and WC).
